

Crime Analysis for Command Staff

Introduction

What is Crime Analysis?
General Mission Statement
The four kinds of analysis

Crime Analysts

What do they do?
Three types of analysis
 Tactical
 Strategic Administrative
Who are the customers?
Five stages of Crime Analysis
 Collection
 Collation
 Analysis
 Dissemination
 Feedback/Evaluation

Crime Analysis Units

Centralized vs. Decentralized
Sworn vs. Non-Sworn
Staffing a Unit
Volunteers

Training Available

Analysis
Mapping
General
Education/degrees available
Support for not-for-profit agencies

How to support your analysts

- What to expect from them
- What NOT to expect from them
- Giving them the respect they need
- Giving them the support they deserve
- Recognizing the unit

Mapping in Crime Analysis

- ArcView vs. MapInfo
- Administrative maps
- Custom Maps
- Court Prosecution Maps

Internet Resources

- Sites of Interest for additional information
- Sample Crime Analysis Unit sites
- Premier mapping sites

Crime Analysis Relationships

- Officers
- Investigators
- Command Staff
- Other PD employees
- Other City service departments
 - Within the community
 - With other analysts

The future in Crime Analysis

- Regional Crime Analysis
- Regional Crime Mapping
- Data/Information Sharing
- State/Regional Associations

Associations of Interest for Analysts

International Association of Chiefs of Police
International Sheriffs Association
International Association of Crime Analysts
Crime Mapping Research Center
BJS/SEARCH
Crime Mapping Technology Center (CMAP)
Police Foundation Crime Mapping Laboratory

Success Stories

Closing